TEMA: PREVERJANJE

Pozdravljeni učenci,

začenja se 5. teden pouka na daljavo. Obravnavali smo že kar precej snovi, zato sem pripravila preverjanje. 1. del preverjanja se nanaša še na staro snov (komunikacije in prijateljstvo). 2. del (ki ga boste dobili nekoliko kasneje) pa se bo nanašal na novejšo snov. Naloge so podobne kot bi jih pisali pri pisnem ocenjevanju znanja. Vzemite si čas in jih rešite. Prepričana sem, da bo šlo.

Rešene naloge mi obvezno pošljite po elektronski pošti v pregled. Lahko pošljete le rešitve, če nimate možnosti tiskanja UL. Naloge in rešitve naj bodo jasno označene.

Rok oddaje nalog: 17.4.2020.

FIRST VALENTINE'S CARD

Valentine lived in Rome during the third century. At that time, Rome was ruled by an emperor named Claudius.

Valentine didn't like Emperor Claudius, and he wasn't the only one! A lot of people shared his feelings. Claudius wanted to have a big army so he asked men to join the army. Many men didn't want to fight in wars because they didn't want to leave their families. As you might guess, not many men signed up. This made Claudius furious. He thought, If men weren't married, they wouldn't mind joining the army. He decided not to allow any more marriages. Young people thought that his new law was cruel and didn't want to support it. One of Valentine's favourite activities was to marry couples. Even after Emperor Claudius passed his law, he kept on performing marriage ceremonies - secretly, of course. It was really exciting. Imagine a small candlelit room with only the bride and groom and Valentine. They whispered the words of the ceremony, listening all the time for the steps of soldiers. One night, they did hear footsteps. It was scary! Luckily, the couple he was marrying escaped in time. Valentine was caught and some days later he heard that he was sentenced to death. Valentine tried to stay cheerful. And do you know what? Many young people came to the jail to visit him. They threw flowers and notes up to his window. They wanted him to know that they, too, believed in love. One of these young people was the daughter of a prison guard. Her father allowed her to visit Valentine in the cell. Sometimes they sat and talked for hours. She helped him to keep his spirits up. She agreed that he had done the right thing by ignoring the Emperor and going ahead with the secret marriages. On the day he was to die, he left his friend a little note thanking her for her friendship. He signed it, 'Love from your Valentine.' People believe that the note began the custom of exchanging love messages on Valentine's Day. It was written on the day Valentine died, February 14, 269 A.D. Even now, in 2009 on this day, people think about love and friendship. And when they think of Emperor Claudius, they remember how he tried to stand in the way of love, and they laugh because they know that love can't be beaten!
